

AL ROGAT
Fort Mill, SC

Originally from New York, Al has called Fort Mill, SC home for six years. He and his father are artists, specializing in the creation of unique fused and stained glass works of art. Before retiring in 2006, Al worked as an IT Project Manager and Corporate Credit Manager.

Al enjoys a variety of ETV programs, “especially Wall Street Week, NOW, Bill Moyers Journal, NOVA Science Now, as well as many nature and science related shows.” Feeling strongly about the value of public broadcasting he states that “ETV and ETV Radio are important public services and must be funded to continue offering alternatives to the waste on commercial TV.”

Al says that you don’t have to be wealthy to leave a legacy gift, that really anyone can do it. “Regardless of your current financial situation, a gift from your estate will not affect your lifestyle, but it will be a lasting way to support worthwhile endeavors.”
